Domestic Medium Hair-Black And White

Medium Young Female

Approx DOB: April 2009

Hi friend! My name is Adeline. My siblings (Ava, Andrew, and Aristotle) and I were discovered living outdoors under a tree and not in a very good situation. Fortunately, some kind person discovered us and we were rescued and placed in a foster home with Furry Friends. We are all looking for a permanent and loving home where we can enjoy the rest of our lives. In return, we will show you lots of love and conversation. We all love to play with balls and fuzzy mice, as well as attack any string toy you place in front of us. When it's time to rest, we also love to sleep on your bed next to you. If you have dogs in your home, that's even better. We love the dog in our foster parent's home and enjoy playing with him. We also have a cute habit of sucking on our paws while we are sleeping. I hope you will fill out an application and adopt me - remember the name is Adeline. Better yet, maybe you will adopt one or more of my siblings with me. That would be so kind.

Hi everyone! I am Bella. I am a lovely sleepy black cat with just a spot of white on my upper chest. I love to have my back scratched!!!!!!

I was placed in foster care (as a very expectant momma,) in November 2008 and shortly thereafter had 5 identical black boys and girls. Although most of my kids are in homes, I am still hanging out with my son Freddie. He is a wonderful boy! I can't believe no one has snatched him up!! We live with some other cats who are looking for their forever homes and I'm always peaceful here because we all are so sweet!

Please meet me soon and let me show you how I can be the perfect kitty for you!!

CHANCE

Domestic Short Hair-Black

Medium Young Male

Approx DOB: October 2007

My name is Chance. And, I hope you will give me one. You see, my story so far has not been a good one. I was recently discovered living in a house where my other 4-legged companions were badly abused in a way most people would consider horrendous. Despite that, I have no major physical problems and I have a good heart. I am a mild-mannered fella who, despite my experiences, am affectionate and have no hesitation about going up to folks, greeting and rubbing against them. I also enjoy the company of other cats and dogs too. I'm a mostly black cat and, unfortunately, most people overlook me because of that. But if you give me a good home, you will see that even black cats have a lot of love to give. So, please give me a chance. Come soon, I'm waiting for you.

Medium    Baby    Female

Approx DOB: July 2009

Meow and happy purrs to you! My name is Cherry and thanks to my foster parents, I am alive and hoping someone will provide me and my sister Rose with a forever home. There were three of us discovered in the State Game Lands back in early July. We were hardly a few weeks old. Our mom was nowhere to be found and so our future looked bleak. Actually one of my siblings did not survive. Now we are happy to be living in a warm foster home with plenty to eat, great places to sleep, and a lot of other kitties to play with. But Rose and I really hope some kind soul will come along and adopt us and give us a forever home.

I love to chase after the laser light, bat around ping-pong balls, and play with just about anything else on the floor. Of course, I also enjoy napping after a good brisk activity time with the other cats. But, if you want me. I promise to be a great companion and friend. I hope you will give me and even Rose (hint, hint) a chance!

DEION

Domestic Short Hair-Black

Medium Baby Male

Approx DOB April 2009

My name is Deion, and I recently celebrated my first birthday in my foster home. I am a social and affectionate guy - I like people, other cats as well as dogs. I'm a big boy compared to my siblings; and my favorite pastime is probably eating, so you can quickly win my heart just by filling my food dish. However, I tend to overeat if allowed, and you will need to monitor my food intake if you have a multi-cat household. I also really like to sit in your lap; so if you have a vacant lap available, please consider saving a seat for me!

Medium    Baby    Male

Approx DOB April 2009

My name is Franco, and I recently celebrated my first birthday in my foster home. I am a social and affectionate guy - I like people, other cats as well as dogs. I really love my foster mom, and she tells me I am VERY demanding for attention. I will occupy her lap for the entire day if allowed. I also love to take outdoor excursions. If a door opens and I am close by, I am very quick about darting outside and going for a romp in the grass. It doesn't take long for me to be ready to come back in if no one else is outside to keep me company, but don't even bother trying to coax me to come back before I'm done with my outdoor romp. Because I am so good at escaping out open doors, my foster mom says I can only be adopted by someone with an environment where there is plenty of outdoor space that is away from busy streets.

Large Young Male

Posted 6-3-10. Hello everybody, my name is Fusco and I am a 2-year old, black, male Lab mix. I am a very active, people oriented boy and love to play with other dogs. I am known for my smile which at first appears to be a snarl, but definitely is NOT, because I only "smile" when I'm overly excited or getting some attention. I'm good with kids, but I like to play rough, so the younger ones may get pushed around a little bit. I LOVE walks and chasing balls, but am still working on returning the ball. I walk well on a leash, am housebroken, and generally just go with the flow. I do like to chew, but I have plenty of toys to satisfy this, and have not even tried to chew on anything I'm not supposed to. I am a typical boy dog though and will mark on good smelling things, so using a belly band on me during the transition to my new home will be helpful. I am crate trained, and I sleep well in my crate overnight. I am neutered, microchipped and up to date on all preventatives and vaccines. Won't you give me a chance to flash my pearly whites at you?

Update 4-6-10. Hello everyone, my name is Jada. I'm a friendly 40 lb, 9 month old mixed black Labrador Retriever Puppy. I am spayed, UTD on my vaccines, wormed, and started on Frontline and Interceptor. I will be micro-chipped before adoption. I am a very happy, high energy puppy and will require frequent exercise to drain my energy. I love my toys and carry them around in my mouth all the time while wagging from head to tail. I am a good passenger in the car, house trained, and do well in a crate. I walk well with a Gentle Leader and have completed my basic obedience class and am now I am returning for a refresher. I am very food motivated and love to work and play. I am good with other dogs, not tested with cats, and I love people. I will need a structured, active home who will provide discipline plus frequent walks and plenty of exercise. You can arrange to meet me on Sundays at Lancaster PetSmart Adoption Days.

JOANNA

Hound Mix

Medium Baby Female

Posted 6-1-10. Hi there friends, anyone out there like long silky ears, a laid back personality, and a happy-go-lucky spirit? Well, that pretty well describes me, Joanna, a three month old hound mix with sleek and shiny chocolate brown fur and a tendering face that is hard to resist. Somehow in my young life, I ended up in a shelter, not my idea of fun. Then I was pulled out of my pen by gentle hands and placed into a crate to be transported to my new foster home. Once I arrived there, things started to look up. I met some friendly people who seemed to adore me, and I also got to hang around with a few other furry friends. In our doggie conversations, we've each talked about our rough paths in life and how nice it is to escape our pasts and have bright futures ahead. Spending the day playing and being cared about, eating some really good meals, having cool water to drink throughout the day, finding stuffed toys and balls waiting for us, lazing in the sunshine, taking walks, vocalizing in our different ways what could be better? Oh yes, our foster family told us there is something better ahead??.. and I expect that one day I will have a family of my own to love and care for me and treat me with kindness. In return, I can offer a warm and trusting spirit, a willingness to learn more about housebreaking and training, lots of friendly hugs, a playful energy, a liking for people of all shapes and sizes, and a lifetime of loyalty. So I'm signing off now yep, it's me Joanna, the long-legged beauty waiting to hear from you.

Domestic Short Hair-Black And White

Medium Young Female

Approx DOB: May 2009

Hi! My name is Merry and thanks to my foster parents, I am alive and hoping someone will provide me with a forever home. My sister Midnight and brother Butterskotch and I were discovered alongside a country road in late July when we were but 10 weeks old. Our mom was nowhere to be found. Perhaps we were thrown out or our mom was a feral. We don't know for certain, but we are happy to be living in a warm foster home with plenty to eat, great places to sleep, and a lot of other kitties to play with.

I love to chase after the laser light, bat around ping-pong balls, and play with just about anything else on the floor. Of course, I also enjoy napping after a good brisk activity time with the other cats. However, what I would love the most is a home of my own where I am always loved and cared for. I promise to be a great companion and friend. I hope you will give me a chance! Maybe you will want to adopt my brother or sister with me?

Approx DOB: May 2, 2006

My name says it all, I love to snuggle and cuddle! Nevertheless, I was left at a veterinary clinic with four other kitties when my owner moved. I've been going from place to place, but hope to find a permanent home with someone who can give me lots of love and attention. My favorite thing to do is be with people. In the house, you can usually find me where the people are. My next favorite thing to do is be with other kitties. I like to walk right up and make friends! While I'm not wild about toys, occasionally I like to chase something, and have been known to run around the house when I get excited. I am tiny for a full-grown kitty, but I make up for my small size with my big heart.

Large Baby Female

Update 5-22-10. Hi there! My name Sophie and I have been at my new foster home for about 2 weeks. My foster mom keeps telling me how beautiful I am! I have a wonderful canine friend at my foster house who I play very well with. I was also lucky to be in a foster home with 4 human children who I love to play with all the time. They like to roll around on the ground with me, but my foster mom says not to do that. I am on a very good schedule, eating twice a day and taking 2 long walks a day on a leash. I still get excited and pull the leash, but I am working on this. Remember, I'm only 7 months old. Did I tell you I have a gorgeous black, silky coat of hair?! I like to lay my head on my foster family's laps and have them pet my head and belly. When I am in a fenced yard, I show off by running as fast as I can and I can even retrieve balls! My foster dad is trying to teach me new tricks every day. I hope to soon find my forever home where I can become a part of the family's life. My foster mom says whoever chooses me is very lucky. Posted 5-22-10. Hi I am Sophie, and I was born 10/4/2009 so I just turned 6 months old. I am a fun loving girl that is looking for a home that wants to go for long walks and possibly go swimming.
